

SUNJING™

COOLING PAIN RELIEF

Sunjing™, with the incredible external analgesic benefit of the active ingredient camphor, provides hours of effective relief from minor aches and pains of muscles and joints associated with simple backaches, arthritis, strains, bruises, sprains and muscle strain and stiffness that may come from sports, exercise or general activity.

The convenient “roll-on” applicator makes application easy—especially for those hard to reach areas. Sunjing™ is greaseless, won't stain your clothing and has a clean, fresh, minty scent. Sunjing's deep penetrating oils start to soothe sore muscles immediately—without aspirin, alcohol, heat or a strong “medicine-like” smell. Sunjing™ is a combination of natural ingredients: camphor, peppermint oil, rosemary oil, eucalyptus oil, lemon oil and orange oil. Each oil is valued for its soothing comfort; as well as, its aromatic benefit.* Simply apply Sunjing™ to the affected area, or “swish” it through your warm bath water and feel your aches and pains float away!

Keep Sunjing™ with you at all times—the convenient roll-on bottle fits easily into pocket or purse. Be protected, at work, home or anytime you are out and about.
